and product business

Since its founding in 1881, Kimura Unity has grown in tandem with the automotive industry while operating its Logistics Services, Total Car Services, Information Services, and Staffing Services businesses. Based on the expertise it accumulated by providing services to customers in Japan, Kimura Unity expanded to other countries and broadened the scope of its businesses, including logistics services for a wide range of industries, in accordance with the increasingly diverse and sophisticated needs of customers. The Company navigated numerous turning points in the course of its long history, but forged ahead without ever forgetting its basic founding principle of "customer focus." Kimura Unity is committed to evolving further in the years ahead to provide genuine value to customers and end-users.

The current head office building, completed in February 1993, performs integral functions and provides support for each of the Company's businesses.
